Utah Olympic Oval Development & NextGen Summer Camp

Salt Lake City, Utah USA | August 7-13, 2026

Welcome to the Utah Olympic Oval Development & NextGen Summer Camp 2026-27! Train at one of the best speed skating facilities in the world and skate on the fastest ice on Earth!

This high-performance development camp is an incredible opportunity to take your training to the next level and set your sights on the 2034 Olympic Games right here in Utah. This is an exciting chapter as we combine forces with the NextGen camp, elevating our training program to new heights. Join us as we share resources between the Utah Olympic Oval and US Speed Skating, creating a dynamic environment for aspiring athletes.

Led by Linlin Sun,2010 Olympic gold medalist and Development Coordinator at Utah Olympic Oval, our camp promises an unparalleled experience. Linlin has been spearheading successful summer camps since 2012, and under her guidance, you'll have the opportunity to train alongside national team coaches, oval program coaches, and experts in sports science to gain valuable insights into elite-level performance.

Our camp's comprehensive program includes participation in the Desert Classic competition, daily on-ice sessions totaling 4 hours, 3 hours of off-ice training, and specialized classroom sessions aimed at refining your skills, knowledge, and overall development. Train alongside athletes from across the country and gain valuable race experience at the Desert Classic competition.
